

Meet Up:

It's what it's all about!

A Meet Up is a scheduled but informal meeting of a group of folks. It can be for any reason, but most likely it is used these days to connote a social gathering and that's the way we're using it this month. In lieu of a formal program in January, AAUW SFV is holding a series of "Meet Ups" to which all of our members will be invited. Three of our members have volunteered to each host a Meet Up at their homes and depending upon where you live, you will be invited to one of the three locations. One will cover members living in the North SFV, one in the East/Mid SFV and one in the West SFV.

We're excited about trying something new that we hope will engage newer members as well as our long-time members. Too often at our regular meetings there is not enough time to interact and connect with members, many of whom we don't get to see on a regular basis. The Meet Ups will hopefully give us a chance to do that in a relaxed social atmosphere. We'll also take the opportunity to talk a little about AAUW and maybe answer some of your questions about the programs and policies and where your interests lie. It should be fun and we hope informative.

Here are the names of our hosts and the dates and times for their Meet Ups. You will receive an invitation either by snail mail or e-mail, so watch for it in January.
