

AAUW-CA CONVENTION!

E³= ENGAGE, EDUCATE, EMPOWER

Engage, Educate, Empower: This is the formula for success for AAUW CA. Join us at the Los Angeles Airport Marriott Hotel, April 11-13, 2014, to energize our branches and our lives by attending workshops and plenary sessions. In addition, we will have the opportunity to engage with members and leaders from other branches. The air will be sizzling with notable people from the film industry. Here are just some of the exciting events you will find at convention:

Friday

The Invisible War: This riveting film deals with the epidemic of rape in the military. A reception where you can meet our state board candidates. Dinner featuring a panel of women legislators speaking on addressing gender inequities. Our new national president, Patricia Fae Ho will speak at the general session.

Saturday

Breakfast featuring our Public Policy Advocate, Shannon Smith Crowley. Lunch featuring Linda Alepin, AAUW's 2013 Eleanor Roosevelt Award winner. Three Speech Trek finalists will give their speeches. Gala Dinner with Madeline Di Nonno speaking on "Gender Equity in the Media."

Sunday

Breakfast with a panel of three members presenting mentoring, recruiting younger members and the importance of 8th grade STEM programs. Lunch featuring plaintiff Sarah Albertson and director Kirby Dick from The Invisible War. This convention will give us the tools to make our own formula for success! We'll feel energized and ready to take the next steps to help women and girls break through barriers!
