

Celebrate Women's History Month!

The North Hollywood Amelia Earhart Regional Library
& the San Fernando Valley Branch of AAUW

Invite you to a film screening to celebrate Women's History Month

Women's History Month grew out of a celebration of International Women's Day which was designated on March 8 of each year. Over the years, this celebration of women's contributions to our nation's history grew in scope from a day to a week and finally to the entire month of March.

In recognition of the role women have played from our founding days as a nation, we will be highlighting the courageous work of the women suffragist by viewing two short films documenting the movement in general and one of its leading voices—Inez Milholland. Join us as we learn about her contributions to gender equality, social justice and free speech. We're pleased that documentary filmmaker Martha Wheelock will be with us to introduce "Forward into Light," the recently released documentary about the life of Inez Milholland.
