

Gender Diversity

On the Boards of Nonprofit Organizations

There is a serious gender gap, particularly for women of color, on the governing boards of higher education and healthcare institutions (“eds and meds”). These boards are among the most powerful and consequential of our nonprofits.

Increasing Gender Diversity on the Boards of Nonprofit Eds and Meds

Explore the story behind the numbers, discuss why we should care, and consider what you and other stakeholders can do to effect change on boards. Our speakers co-authored a recently published national study on this subject. They are members of the Philadelphia-based Women’s Nonprofit Leadership Initiative, which has been working since 2012 to change the numbers in the area of gender diversity on non-profit boards.
