

AAUW-SFV HOLIDAY PARTY

Holiday Cheer and Art Project

Some of the best aspects of the holiday season are spending time with friends and family, decorating our homes, and sending out cards to friends and family. This year we will facilitate all three of these with a very fun art project called Iris Folding. We will gather on Zoom, and each person will create their own beautiful papercraft. Iris Folding is super easy – even the most artistically challenged can make beautiful cards and framed art.

We will send you all the materials you need except scotch tape. Just join the meeting and learn how to make these lovely creations and amaze your friends.

A RSVP is necessary so that we know to send you your materials. An early RSVP is encouraged to make sure your supplies arrive before the meeting. You can provide your own materials. See article on page 4 for a list.
