

Poetry & Parity

In February, we bring you an engaging and stimulating look at America through the voices of Black women. We will be featuring award winning readings and poetry which will inspire and stimulate us. We will also present AAUW’s new effort to expand Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) awareness. This will be followed by a discussion of the issues raised by the presentations.

We will hear the poetry of Amanda Gorman, the youngest inaugural poet in U.S. history. Her writings have resulted in invitations to the Obama White House and to perform for Lin-Manuel Miranda, Al Gore, Secretary Hillary Clinton, Malala Yousafzai, and others.

We will also read author Mahogany L. Browne, poet, curator, writer, organizer, educator, and founder of Penmanship Books, who has received numerous awards for her books, poems, and essays.

We look forward to having you join us via Zoom for this inspirational and educational meeting.

Saturday, February 19, 2022

1:00 PM
Zoom meeting

Read page 4 column 2 for how to attend!

No reservations required. Cost is free. We encourage you to invite your friends to join us. See directions on page 5 on how to attend using your computer or tablet, or how to call in using any phone.

AAUW advances equity for women and girls through advocacy, education, philanthropy, and research.

*In principle and in practice, AAUW values and seeks a diverse membership.
There shall be no barriers to full participation in this organization on the basis of gender, race, creed, age, sexual orientation, national origin, disability or class*