

CELEBRATE THE ERA CENTENNIAL

JULY 21, 1923 - JULY 21, 2023

In Seneca Falls on the 75th Anniversary of the First Women's Convention calling for the vote, Miss Alice Paul introduced the Equal Rights Amendment, stating that all women and men deserve equal rights.

It's hard to believe that 100 years have passed, and we haven't passed the ERA yet. We would like to honor and celebrate the amazing women who started the ball rolling for ERA 100 years ago. Since the date of the 100th anniversary of Paul's announcement falls in July, we are going to move our June meeting to July so that we can celebrate on the anniversary of Paul's announcement!
