

THE LAVENDER EFFECT

There is an urgent need to provide LGBTQ+ role models for youth and to educate the public at large. History teaches us that human rights are fragile, and that progress is often followed by societal backlash. Although great strides have been made, the epidemic of bullied and disenfranchised LGBTQ+ youth continues. The Lavender Effect® is a 501(c)3 nonprofit project of Community Partners that is advancing the future of Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer (LGBTQ) Heritage and Culture via its Oral History Project, educational programs, workshops, and its Out and About tours of LA.

The Oral History Project will be highlighted at our December meeting. You will hear from three pioneering women who participated in an historic event or movement in Los Angeles' LGBTQ+ history. By documenting living testimonies, OHA plays an important role in educating the public on this often-neglected part of our history and helps to empower LGBTQ+ youth.

Note the date! We are combining our November and December meetings into a single meeting, which will be on Saturday, December 2.
