

TIME TO VOTE!

Voting in the November 2 midterm elections has already begun. Make sure your ballot is received on time and counted. If you're unsure of how to vote on the ballot measures, consider waiting to mark your answers until you attend our October meeting, where the League of Women Voters (LWV) will provide a presentation on these important measures.

There are several Constitutional propositions on the ballot, the Millionaires tax (Prop 40), housing, health measures, government ID required before citizens can vote (Prop 39). As in the past, we have turned to the LWV to make sense of the pros and cons of each measure; The LWV is a tried-and-true non-partisan source dating back to 1920. Loraine Lundquist will be our LWV guide, so have your ballots on hand, as she explains what your yes or no vote really means.

We encourage you to invite family and friends to join us in person or on Zoom. The stakes are high, on the federal, state and local levels. Your voice needs to be heard; be an informed voter!
